

IBM Software

Business Analytics Forum

March 13-15, 2012

Melbourne Convention Centre | Melbourne

Join us at IBM® Business Analytics Forum Asia Pacific 2012, the most comprehensive learning opportunity for IBM Cognos®, SPSS®, OpenPages® and Clarity software users.

Here you'll find the practical know-how you need to maximise the value of software deployments – from business intelligence, financial analytics, reporting and governance to risk management, predictive analytics and analytic applications – and perform your day-to-day job more effectively.

IBM Business Analytics Forum offers:

- More than 60 information-packed breakout sessions
- The EXPO Hall, where you will see real-world solutions, powerful innovations and hands-on demos. Experience the entire IBM Business Analytics ecosystem and get one-on-one answers to your toughest challenges.
- Opportunities to network with like-minded peers and colleagues in the business analytics community.
- Real-world insights from other customers and industry leaders. Learn how to save time, reduce costs, and respond to change more quickly.

For all these reasons – and more – you won't want to miss this informative annual user conference!
